Junior UI/UX Designer At Pix 10

2015 - 2016

As a junior UI/UX designer in an agency, I have worked on various projects.

Collaborating with the product managers, developers, and stake holders to improve the products experience.

Apart from making a clean and functional UI design, I had to research and gather the data, keeping on mind the user's perspective and build the information architecture.

Created interaction strategies that helped developing navigation and flow, designing wireframes and interactive prototypes, organizing content, and advocating for the needs and goals of real users.
