- Scoring can be implemented based on correct answers.
- Features can include time limits, randomization of questions, and difficulty levels.
- Suitable for learning about lists, dictionaries, and control flow.

Smart Farming Overwater and Underwater Detection System

This Python project uses AI and Deep Learning to detect overwatered or underwatered conditions in plants, promoting efficient irrigation management.

- Image Analysis: Employs deep learning models like ResNet to analyze plant and soil images for water stress signs.
- Automation: Integrates IoT devices (e.g., cameras and sensors) for real-time monitoring and alerts.
- Applications: Optimizes water usage, detects plant stress early, and enhances crop yield while supporting sustainable farming.
