PROJECTS

Food Fusion – Restaurant Website

Developed a dynamic and responsive restaurant website using React.js, HTML, JavaScript, Next UI, and Tailwind CSS. Integrated PostgreSQL for storing menu, customer, and order data. Focused on clean UI/UX, seamless navigation, and optimized performance to ensure a smooth user experience.

TheMaterial (E-Commerce Website)

The Material is an e-commerce website developed to showcase and sell high-quality plywood design materials. I worked on designing and developing the full WordPress site, implementing product listings, user-friendly navigation. The site provides an easy shopping experience for both retail and wholesale buyers.

Square Angle (E-Commerce Website)

Square Angle is another dynamic e-commerce platform I developed using WordPress and WooCommerce. The website features modern UI/UX with categories for various interior and home improvement products. I was responsible for setting up product filtering, user account creation, and ensuring mobile responsiveness.

Zilusion Design (Interior Design Website)

Zilusion Design is a premium interior design website developed for a reputed design firm in Ranchi. I created a visually appealing portfolio section showcasing their residential and commercial interior projects. The site also includes service pages, client testimonials, and inquiry forms to boost lead generation.

Deejos Interior (Interior Design Website)

Deejos Interior is a stylish and modern website designed for a top interior firm. I worked on layout structuring, image optimization, and custom theme development to align with their brand identity. The site beautifully highlights their completed works and provides seamless navigation for potential clients.

Span Construction (Construction Company Website)

I built span construction website for construction. This website include detailed service pages, project galleries, contact forms, and SEO-friendly structures. Each site was uniquely tailored to match the branding and work style of the construction firm.

BBSR CAR.COM (Car Retailer Website)

This project involved creating an attractive and easy-to-navigate website for a car retail company. The platform includes car listings with filters for model, price, and features. I also implemented features like inquiry forms, location maps, and WhatsApp integration for quick communication.
